I am extremely thankful to Dr YP Munjal, my mentor, a role model, for guidance who has been helping me in every step during my tenure as a Dean of Indian College of Physicians of Association of Physicians of India and had written a foreword for Progress in Medicine. I would like to express my deep sense of appreciation for the help rendered by Prof Sidharth N Shah and Prof BB Thakur for their guidance time to time.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr Girish Mathur, Dr Anil Chaturvedi, Dr MK Roy, Dr Dhruv Chaudhary, Dr Rajesh Rajput, Dr Harpreet Singh, Dr Jyotirmoy Pal, Dr A. Muruganathan, Dr Sibendu Ghosh, Dr Gurbax Singh, Dr Manish Aggarwal, Dr R.M.Chhabra, Dr Rajeev Gupta, Dr JR Chugh, Dr VK Bindal and others who helped me in preparing the scientific contents for this CME.

Our President Elect Dr Rajesh Upadhyay was also very generous in discussing the scientific material of his program and exchanging time to time to avoid duplicacy.

Contribution and guidance of Padamshree (Prof) Shashank R Joshi President of API and Chairman of ICP needs special mention who had been always an immense help to me during the whole year 2014-2015.

My heartfelt thanks to Dr Milind Y.Nadkar, Honorary Secretary of API and the main pillar, who had always been a great support to me and guiding me regularly.

For every success there is always one lady behind it; She is Dr Sushma Gupta my beloved wife. She had always been cooperative and a great source of inspiration to me. Dr Ankur Gupta and Dr Rajat Gupta my sons, had been helping me throughout the year especially in planning and execution of the program at all levels including the publication of Progress in Medicine.

I am thankful to all my well wishers, friends, staff of my hospital especially my colleague Dr Sunil Mangla who had been looking after the patients during my absence in the institution. Special thanks to Mr Tapas Thakur and Mr Devender Kumar who handled the secretarial work handsomely.
